Introduction

From the dawn of time, there were special blessed men (and women) that dealt with high powers from heaven and hell. At the end of the XIX century, the rebirth of the interest for magick came with the order of Golden Dawn, and more especially in the derived works of Samuel Liddell MacGregor Mathers (1854-1918) who edited the “Lesser Key of Solomon,” also known as “Clavicula Salomonis Regis” or “Lemegeton.”

Aleister Crowley popularized this book and their beings (“demons”) by his works. What Crowley and Mathers did not know or deliberately hid was that their sources were incomplete, missing a key part of the system.

The key missing part is the fact that for summon a demon, you must first summon the correspondent shem ha-mephorash angel. Some think that the problem with the modern world is that they popularized the work with demons without calling their angels counterpart first. Stephen Skinner seems to have discovered it and published his book “The Goetia of Doctor Rudd: the angels&demons of Liber malorum spirituum seu Goetia Lemegeton clavicular Salomonis: with a study of the techniques of evocation in the context of the angelic magic tradition of the seventeenth century.”

Later the groups “Gallery of Magick” and “Power of Magick” popularized, even more, this way of work. I still think their system is still quite complicated.

Of course, there is no comparison to the traditional way, which consisted of wearing robes, circles, triangles, consecrated weapons, and tools.

By practice, and mixing with my knowledge of dowsing, I put a simpler way that I discovered to be equally effective. Many times fellow magicians complain that they requested something to some angel or demon, and their requests were not fulfilled, and they don't know why.

These supernatural beings have expertise. They are versatile and extremely powerful, but often if you request a thing that is not in their expertise or domain (under their power), they could not help you, and you will not know what happened.

The way to prevent this is to contact the being, ask if he can do that, and ask if he will do this for you if asked, but not everyone is gifted with a hundred percent 3rd eye opened. That is where the dowsing enters.

The Egyptians already used dowsing for many tasks, and among them was the task of contacting supernatural beings and the deceased. Getting feedback from the angels and demons with the pendulum is possible even to the novice practitioners. Off we go for the start of changing your life and the way you do magick.

Part I - What are angels

General Instructions

The Greek word “Angelos” means a messenger. In the Hebraic Bible, the word for an angel is “mala'ak,” and it has the same meaning, which is someone that makes a connection, brings news or orders.

They used this word for messengers of kings as well as messengers of God. Under the knowledge of Kabalah, angels are sentient creatures that abide and work in other higher planes of existence. They are not natural from the physical plane, but here could come to fulfill missions and bring messages.

The Shem Ha-mephorash angels

The 72 fold name of god is important since the Sefer Raziel grimoire and referred as a key component in the magical practices of the grimoire Lesser Key of Solomon.

It is derived from the book of Exodus, 14:19-21, putting the three verses one above the other and reading the first and the third from right to left (the regular way to read Hebraic) and the second from left to right.

This technique of encryption was not a privilege of the Hebrew people - Egyptians, Hittites, and Minoans had already used it. The result is 72 columns of 3 letters, read from above to below.

The 72 names of 3 letters.

Adding the suffixes “ia” (יה) or “el” (אל) we obtain the names of the 72 angels.

The mages of old times developed ways to contact these angels by calling them by spelling some certain psalms.

The Psalms In their use for summoning

Here comes a tricky part. In medieval times, most of the books used the Latin version of the Psalms. Still, you will agree with me if the angel names are derived from the Hebraic psalms, will be more powerful, correct and effective to use the Hebraic spelling of the Psalms, due to the fact of the Hebraic alphabet having energy on its own (is a magical alphabet).

However, most people don't know that the Vulgata (Latin Bible) and the Hebraic are not directly equivalent; you have to convert the number of Psalms because they are different.

I did this research, and in this book, I use the converted Hebraic Psalms. We should do the conversion this way:

Hebrew (Masoretic) numbering	Greek (Septuagint or Vulgate) numbering
1–8	1–8
9–10	9
11–113	10–112
114–115	113
116	114–115
117–146	116–145
147	146–147
148–150	148–150

Conversion Table for Numbering the Psalms

This difference in the book numbers is because of the different translations done, from Hebrew to Greek and later from Greek to Latin. Some bibles had followed the Hebrew numbering and others the Greek language format, so to find the correct Hebrew number, you must convert using the above tab.

Besides, you have to compare the translation if it stays with the same meaning in Hebrew and Latin (I found some numbering of Psalms errors in the “Goetia of Dr. Rudd” this way).

To my knowledge, as in 2020, my book is the only one used for summoning Shem Angels that have the corresponding traditional psalms in Hebraic, and I transliterated them (wrote how to pronounce), and that is what you will use to call them, after requesting to Raziel. Damon Brand’s book uses quite a different list of Psalms (although some are the same). I used the traditional depicted in medieval books like the “Goetia of Dr. Rudd.”

I must tell you that my only change was to substitute all “Adonais” for IHVH because the regular Jewish since the old, every time they found IHVH in the scriptures, they changed to “Adonai.”

So, especially in these Psalms, I put it back to be more effective (and indeed they are!).

What are demons

Traditional books that had its origins in the dark medieval times classified this kind of spirit in Kings, Dukes, Princes, Marquises, Counts, Knights, and presidents.

They tell about their infernal rank, and about how many legions of inferior (to them) spirits they command.

For real, the word “demon” comes from the Latin word “Daemon,” which comes from the Greek word “Daimon,” with having the following meanings: “God,” “equal to God,” “Power,” and “Fate.”

Another sense was of a minor deity or guiding spirit. Plato described the Daemons as benevolent spirits of nature.

Hesiod has written that they transformed the golden age folk into daemons to serve the mortals as their guardian spirits, resting invisible, but known by their acts.

Due confusions with origin in misconceived translations, this meaning was changed in the 2nd century when the Greeks used the word daimon for the evil spirits from the Bible books of Judges and the books of Kings of the Old Testament.

They utilized the same term for the deities of the people that were enemies of the Hebrews, like Astarte and Baal, gods of the Phoenicians. By this example, we can infer that the Demons Bael and Astarot are corrupt names of the same Phoenician’s deities, and maybe are still the same spiritual entities.

Probably you already read this elsewhere, and I don’t know the author, but I fully agree that “The gods of the old religion of a conquered people became the demons of the new dominant state religion.”

Sadly, gods of the harvest, love, fertility equally with old gods of war, and death became the demons of the new religion. It has happened over and over in our history. One exciting legend that is written in the book “Testament of Solomon” is that King Solomon built his temple of Jerusalem with the help of Demons.

Crowley (Aleister) once wrote that the Goetia demons would correspond to parts of the brain. Only in the sense of equivalency of microcosm/macrocosm.

I think he was trying to look smart to the scientists, making his magical writings more appreciated by Victorian society. In the book of Abramelin, after the immense hard work to contact his guardian angel, the mage wins the power to command three hundred demons at will in a hierarchy that has at its top Lucifer himself.

How to dowse

I will show you the basics for you to dowse and contact with the angels and demons.

There were many shapes of pendulums, but for our purpose, the best IMHO is a crystal pendulum.

A pendulum is an object with a rope or chain attached that could swing. Please take notice that heavier and bigger the pendulum slower will be its response to change direction when answering your questions. Pendulums are cheap.

I advise you to get one on any esoteric store. After using it, I recommend you to clean it. If it is of crystal, wash it on moving water.

If it is of wood or metal, touch the floor with it for its discharge, and better would be if you could touch the outside at ground floor level where there is grass or sand, at least weekly if possible.

With it in hand, let's do a simple consecration ritual to bless it and prepare to work with this higher purpose.

Remember that the Hebrew alphabet is magical, their letters have each a special energy, and god names as well angel names are a representation of the named ones and conceal their power.

That's why every time in this book, when it appears a name that is written in Hebrew (or in Malachim), you must scan it with your eyes, passing the eyes from right to left over it, to activate the magick, in simpler words.

The pendulum consecration ritual

Sit down in a place with a table. Put your pendulum in the table. Chant Eheieh and imagine a ball of light over your head. Now open your both hands, in parallel, over the dowsing pendulum and say the following sentence, imagining a light coming from skies entering your top of the head feeding you and getting out of your palm of your hands in a ray of light over your pendulum:

"In the name of EHEIEH (אֲחֵיהָ) I ask you archangel METATRON (מַטְאַתְרוֹן) to bless this pendulum and shape its energies for spirit communication with angels and demons making it safe for the operator.

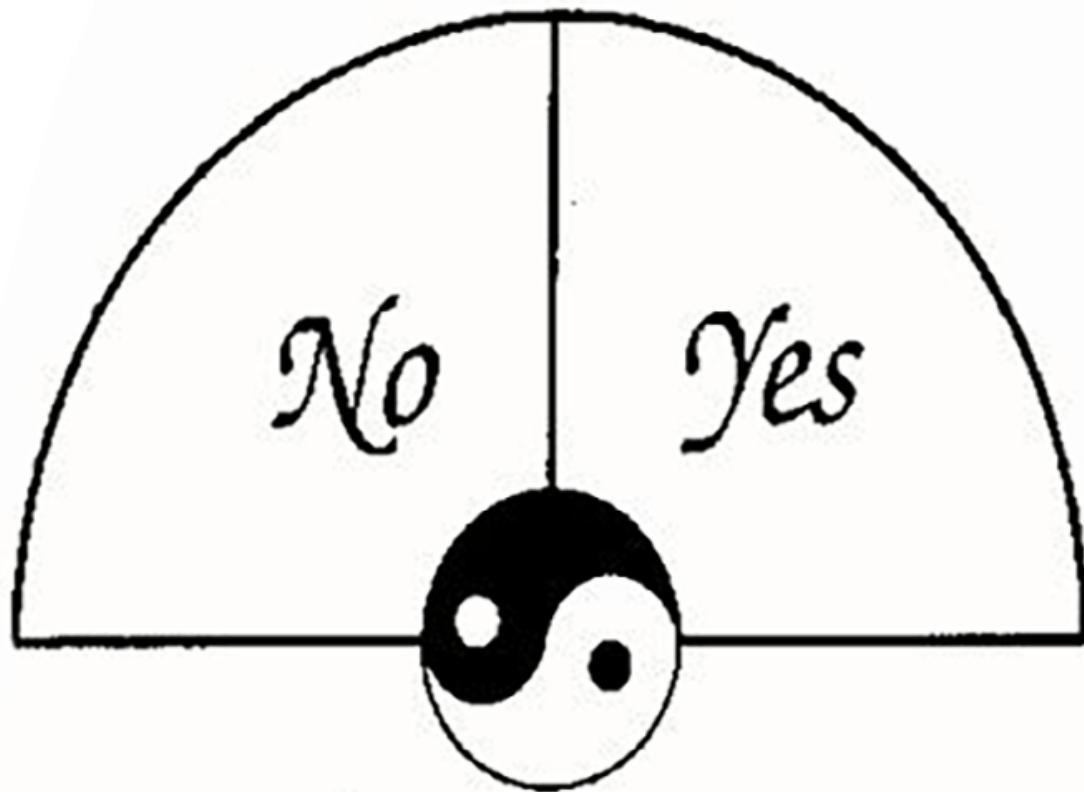

Amein!"

Notice that the last word is not "amen" but the correct word in Hebraic (as in old testament) that means "so be it". It is indeed "amein", which is pronounced "aw-mane".

The ritual is done. Now you can use your pendulum.

How to use your pendulum

You must draw or print a chart like this to use with your pendulum.

In case you are used to using the pendulum without any chart, you can keep using the convention of vertical balance for “yes” and horizontal for “no,” of course.

However, let me pass my experience that with some heavier pendulums: you will have a delay in the answer for its switch position until 10 seconds, which could lead to misinterpretation.

With that “yes/no” chart would be faster to get answers because it will answer quickly changing its momentum.

Now grab your pendulum and put in the center of the yin-yang symbol. If you have used another chart, place it in the middle of the yes and no, at the bottom intersection of lines.

With the pendulum put stopped over it, go adjusting your pick at the rope until the point it will oscillate by itself. Mark that length, put a knot on it.

That will be the perfect point for you to hold the pendulum. Now get used to it. Order it to oscillate, making a “yes.” Order it to make “no.” You need not force it. Don’t shake your hand or arm. Just let it connect to the divine source and your higher self.

Training the use of a pendulum

Besides, keep asking it to make “yes” or “no,” you could train your proficiency, asking things to it the same way you would do to in a truth detector. For example, grab a blue object. Following, ask the pendulum: “Is this brown? ”.

Try various wrong colors and check the answers. Say the correct answer sometimes and see that it makes “yes.”

This way, you will adjust your interpretation and sensibility.

You can train your psychic intuition too. Grab a deck of cards. Shuffle it. With the deck with the suits facing down, pick the first card and put in front of you, with the numbers and suit still facing down. Ask your pendulum: “Is the suit red? ”.

Ask in sequence: “Is the suit black? ”. After this first time, do about four with the card facing up and keep asking and training. Each fifth time, put the card facing down. You can write in a notebook your statistics for the face-down card guesses.

Anything above the success rate of 50% is proof that something supernatural is occurring. By my experience, the more you practice, the more your success rate will increase.

Having the help of an Archangel

To make things even easier (and safe), we need to contact the archangel that specializes in communication among the spheres or planes. If you don't use the archangel as an intermediary, you fall into the risk of having an entity faking to be the real one that you are trying to contact.

With him making the connection, there will never be a mistake. Some people will say that the pendulum lies, that it will say what you want to hear. I can assure you that's not true. If you follow my instructions, you will never connect to the wrong being, and it will tell nothing but the truth.

The first one to recommend using this Archangel services in modern times was the author of the book "The Miracle of New Avatar Power," Geof Gray-Cobb (people refer to this book as "NAP").

He used the services of the angel Arzel, who seems to be an aspect of Raziel. He (or she) is straightforward to contact, amiable, and full of patience. Damon Brand (GOM author) seems to have discovered it for the first time. He uses a talisman to contact the Shem Angels and some other rituals, but this way, you will not need any talismans or long rituals.

Just ask for Raziel to connect to the angel (or demon) and "voilà." Maybe the long rituals are to assure the practitioner that the angels will be there, as the practitioner rarely has a way to perceive the answers of the entities.

This way, no need because the first thing you will ask is if the being is there. Raziel appears on the grimoires Sefer Raziel HaMalakh, Sepher Ha-Razim, the Magus, and in the Grimoire of Pope Honorius.

The Sefer Raziel grimoire was published in the Netherlands in 1700 but had its origin in manuscripts from the XIII century.

Other Grimoires like the book of Oberon and the sixth and seventh book of Moses also give reference to this grimoire.

According to the Zohar (from around 150 BC), the Book of Splendor, God sent the archangel Raziel with a book to Adam.

This book was about the holy mysteries of the highest nature: the secret knowledge of the 72 types of wisdom, virtue, and power. In the cabalistic tree of life, these virtues were structured in 9 groups of 8 angels, and each one was ruled by an archangel.

Calling the archangel Raziel

You will need to look at the sigil to call the archangel Raziel (רזיאל) only the first time.

When you connect with him, ask for him to come ever when you call him. He will come.

Look at this seal. Scan it passing your eyes over the Hebraic letters from right to left, as well the malachim written angel name of Raziel. Malachim is the name of the angelic alphabet that appears in Agrippa's book 'Of Occult Philosophy,' 1651 edition.

Chant the name of Raziel a few times, until you feel a presence. If it takes longer than a minute, assume that Raziel is already with you.

How to operate with Raziel

Once one minute passed with you chanting Raziel's name and looking at the sigil, or if you felt the presence, position your pendulum in the chart and ask: "Raziel, are you here?" The answer should be yes and probably will be.

I got nothing diverse from it in a consecrated pendulum. If it were an Ouija board, you probably would get connected to some fallen spirit, astral shell, or something alike, but not using a consecrated pendulum. In time, when you ask if a spirit is there, you will sense the pendulum pull.

When they emphasize their answers, like a person saying "certainly," you will feel the pull with a more strong force. Same way, advancing a bit in the art if the spirit is uncertain of what to answer or does not know or don't want (or even can't for the most diverse reasons), the pendulum will oscillate in a circular pattern.

Once he confirms his presence, ask for him to allow you to summon him, only calling his name. I suggest you add "whispering." Sometimes you can't call in a normal voice than whisper will do the trick if accorded before.

Observe the answer. If it is yes, next time you call his name, and he will be present. Some authors use a pathwork, and others use elaborated rituals to call Raziel. Fell free to use what your heart says and whatever makes you comfortable, but only calling will work for most of the people.

Now to the job. Say to him to whom you want to talk. I use these words: "Raziel, please connect me to ... ". And sometimes I want to work with different beings, not from the Shem Ha-mephorash and Goetia Hierarchy, and then I ask: "Can you please connect me to ... ?" In the end, I give thanks to the being(s) and Raziel. You can't go wrong.

Simple instructions and ask only things that can be answered with yes and no. Further elaborated questions could be answered, creating charts with verbs and nouns, but usually, if you plan smart before the ritual, your questions the answers “yes” or “no” will satisfy you most of the time. Just go asking by trial and error.

The methods

I will explain the two primary methods for contacting angels and demons for making petitions.

The method for contacting an angel

First, choose which angel you wish to call to make your petition. You may select in the tables of angels section of this book, by subject area of expertise. Write the angel name and number. Call Raziel and ask for him to connect you to the angel. Look at the angel sigil for a moment. Chant (yes, in your way) the summoning psalm 3 times. Look at the sigil and call (with intent to be heard) the name of the angel three times. Place your pendulum in the board and ask: “Are you listening _____ (name of the chosen angel)?”.

See that the pendulum makes a “yes.” Greet the angel. Give thanks for coming by. Say now: “Please make a No in the pendulum for me to know that we are communicating.”

See that the pendulum makes “no.” If it does, you are now in communication with your desired shem angel. Imagine, feel the situation you don’t like or the problem. Ask the angel if he has the alleged power to fix it and if he can help you. Say: “Do you have the power to _____?” See the answer.

Continue: “Can you help me with _____?” Sometimes your problem solution lies with another angel, with other expertise. If the answer is “no,” give thanks to the angel and license to depart, and choose another angel to ask the same.

Review your notes, if you haven’t mistaken the name/number of the angel. There are so many books, and some may be wrong about the expertise, or the angel could do nothing to you, hard, but happens.

Getting back to the last question, in case the answer to the question, if he can help you be yes, now you ask the angel, talking or whispering if he will help you if requested.

Ask if he will help: “Will you help me if I ask you to _____, (angel name)?” See the answer. Sometimes the angel has the power, can help you, but will not help you if he thinks that won’t be very good for you, or if that is your karma. If the answer is yes, imagine how happy you will be with your problem solved. Now do your petition: “_ _ _ (name of the angel)! It is my will that you _ _ _.

Will you help me?” See the answer. Give thanks to the angel. You may bless the angel, in the name of Elohim Tzabaoth, which is the god name in the mercury plane. Give Thanks to Raziel.

Give license to depart, this way (for angels): “As you angels come in peace, go in peace.” Use your words for gratitude like “Amen,” “Shalom,” etc.

The method for contacting a demon

Choose the demon that you want to work with at the table of demons by area of expertise. Write his number and name.

Go to the page of that demon that has the chosen name and number, and then you'll write down the name of the angel that has the same number. Call Raziel and ask him to connect to that angel. Look at the angel sigil for a moment.

Chant the summoning psalm 3 times. Look at the sigil and call (with intent to be heard) the name of the angel three times.

Place your pendulum in the board and ask: "Are you listening _ _ _ _ (name of the chosen angel)?" See that the pendulum makes "yes."

Greet the angel. Give thanks for coming by. Say now: "Please make a 'no' in the pendulum for me to know that we are communicating." See that the pendulum makes "no." Perfect.

Now say your intent to the angel. " _ _ _ _ (name of the angel), I intend to contact the demon _ _ _ _ (name of the demon), please stay with me enforcing my divine authority while I talk to him, protecting me now, during the operation and after, enforcing my authority in a way that he obeys me and not harm me. Will you help me?" See the answer.

In case it is "yes," proceed. Say: "Please stay with me and bring in your attending angels!"

Now proceed to Call Raziel: Say "Raziel, connect me to the demon _ _ _ _."

Look at the demon sigil for a moment. Chant the summoning psalm three times. Say the conjuration that is on the page, that part with a sequence of divine and angelic names that end with "hear me."

Look at the sigil and call (with intent to be heard) the name of the demon three times. Place your pendulum in the board and ask: "Are you listening _ ___ (name of the chosen demon)?" See that the pendulum makes "yes." Greet the demon.

Say welcome, his rank, name and enn for example: "Welcome, King ___, thank you for coming." Say now: "Please make a 'no' in the pendulum for me to know that we are communicating."

See that the pendulum makes "no." If it does, you are now in communication with your desired Goetia demon. Imagine, feel the situation that you don't like or the problem. Ask the demon if he has the alleged power to fix it and if he can help you. Say: "Do you have the power to ___?" See the answer. Continue: "Can you help me with ___?"

As I said for the shem angels previously, sometimes the solution to your problem lies with another demon or angel, with other expertises. If the answer is "no," give thanks to the demon and license to depart (see ahead how is a license to depart for a demon). Choose another demon and start again.

Getting back to the last question, in case the answer to the question about if he can help is yes, now ask the demon, talking or whispering if he will help you if requested. Ask if he will help: "Will you help me if I ask you to ___, (demon name)?"

See the answer. If the answer is yes, imagine how happy you will be with your problem solved. Now do your petition: "___ + ___ (rank and name of the demon)! It is my will that you ___. I will give you public praise posting on my social networks recommending your services (or in the Facebook group "x," you, the operator, the mage chooses what is best for you). Will you help me?"

Perceive if the answer satisfies you or not. In case it is not, you can try to convince the demon to do your deed because of (you name the reason). Ask again, and when you are satisfied, proceed to the license to depart.

Let me make an observation. Magic has to adapt to the times. Demons and angels have perfect knowledge of our modern world. Compliment on the internet is INDEED public praise. It is way better than go to the downtown square near the church (as was in medieval times) and scream "thanks to the demon x... ". Efforts like that, those words, would die in time. Public praise on the internet will last forever. See the answer. Give thanks to the demon.

You may bless the demon, in the name of IAO and El, that are divine powers that are less aggressive to their nature. As some mythology states, some of them hope to return to the throne of God someday, then a blessing will (or probably be) appreciated.

Give license to depart, this way (for demons): “Depart in peace, without causing harm or loss to me or my beloved relatives (wife or husband, friend, children, etc.) and pets, and come at once when I call you.”

Give Thanks to Raziel, shem angel, and attendants. You can say for the angels their general license to depart, which is: “As you come in peace, go in peace.”

The Powers of the beings

I will give a concise, useful, and practical list for the powers of spiritual beings — one list for the angels, others for the demons. Don't forget to call the correspondent angel before to summon a demon. If your solution lies in the powers of the 43rd demon, Sabnock, call before the 43rd angel, Veualiah. And always thank and give a license to depart after you make your requests.

You will look for the area of expertise that you require in a column and see which angel or demon is listed. There you will find his number and is by this number that you will find him in the corresponding section of this book.

If you want an extensive description of the powers of the Shem angels, I recommend you to get the books by Damon Brand, Ben Woodcroft, or Richard Ambelain, and alternatively Franz Bardon (who shows different sigils that some say "invented"). For the extensive description of the powers of the demons, I recommend you acquire the books of Gordon Winterfield or Corwin Hargrove. Henry Archer describes both classes of supernatural beings as well. I want to enforce that my work is original.

Although I have read these authors, and many other good authors but the system you see in this book is attuned by me.

Books about these angels and demons you will find by the hundreds, maybe there is nothing new under the sun, but as my knowledge, my book is the first one to address spirit communication with shem angels and Goetia demons using the pendulum (a consecrated one).

The sigils

All sigils in the core of the images are in the public domain. The Goetia ones are from Wikimedia Commons.

The Shem Ha-mephorash ones appeared in Golden Dawn rolls over 100 years ago.

I did the arts around them to protect the user from the eventual negative energies of the Goetia sigils and concentrate the positive energies in the case of the Shem angels, surrounding with powerful god names.

I deliberately have chosen to put them in octagons due to the clues that Franz Bardon did saying that the Shem Hamephoresh angels were mercurial.

As in Rudd's book is said that they rule over the Goetia spirits, I concluded that their nature is mercurial, too, but in case I am wrong, it would not do any bad.

You will see many books that have the Goetia ones inside triangles, but dear reader, my (and our) intent is to contact them to make our requests, and not to summon them in physical form.

We don't need it for our aim and the objectives of this book.

Do I need to banish?

No. Keep your banishing rituals if you feel safe, but I only do the body of protection and circle banishing daily (you will find these rituals in the book Angelic Protection Magick by Ben Woodcroft), and eventually, the Sword banishing (from Magickal Protection by Damon Brand), but in the morning or at dawn, never before or after an operation.

I agree with Woodcroft that the Lesser Banishing Ritual of The Pentagram may bring problems to the novice ones as it writes blazing pentagrams of energy that often brings unwanted attention in the astral to the practitioner.

Giving rewards or making a deal with the spirits

I agree with Franz Bardon in the following: If the spirit senses your divine authority, he/she will never ask for something in return. If you don't know why a Demon would fulfill your request or obey you, you don't deserve it.

Research and study more about the position of man in the creation, according to the Kaballah.

But if you want, as a token of goodwill, you can promise public appraisal publishing thanks to him or her on your favorite Facebook magickal group or your social networks.

That will suffice because more people will want to work with the spirit

The Enns

The Enns are chants in an unknown or demoniacal language that has for aim to express admiration, invite, or ask for protection of certain demons. The first time it appears was in the private grimoires of Alexander Willit in the XVI century.

The myth is that later in history, various people in different places channeled them, and the enns ended up being the same ones.

It is more used in demonolatry, but I believe it could serve the same way as the Psalms to start the communication with the demons in an easy, respectful way.

For how many days I need to repeat the ritual?

Some authors recommend you to do a ritual asking a spirit for eleven, seven, or three days. Some money rituals do it for thirty-three days. I'm not saying it is wrong, but I advise you to ask the spirit if you need to repeat the ritual for "x" days to be more effective. I, for example, rarely do a ritual to ask the same being more than once. Only if it is a work in progress, with development stages or which to get success, it needs a necessary order of events being played or happening.

For example, let's ask if you need to do the ritual for more two days (in case you aimed to do it for three days in a row).

You can ask: "Do I need to repeat this petition for two more days for the result be more effective?", for example. If the answer is no, you can ask again, this time reducing the number of days: "Do I need to repeat this petition for one more day?".

You can ask the same way with planned rituals for 33, 11, 7 days, for example, and go reducing the number of days until you find the best for your case.

The Spelling

No special instructions. The "Ch" is to be pronounced as Ch in "Loch" only. Ignore the graphical accents that are not present in English, no significant change in the result will come.

GOETIA ILLUSTRATED WITH PATHWORKINGS

A modernized Lemegeton with demons' pathworks and magickal correspondences

CARL SPARTACUS

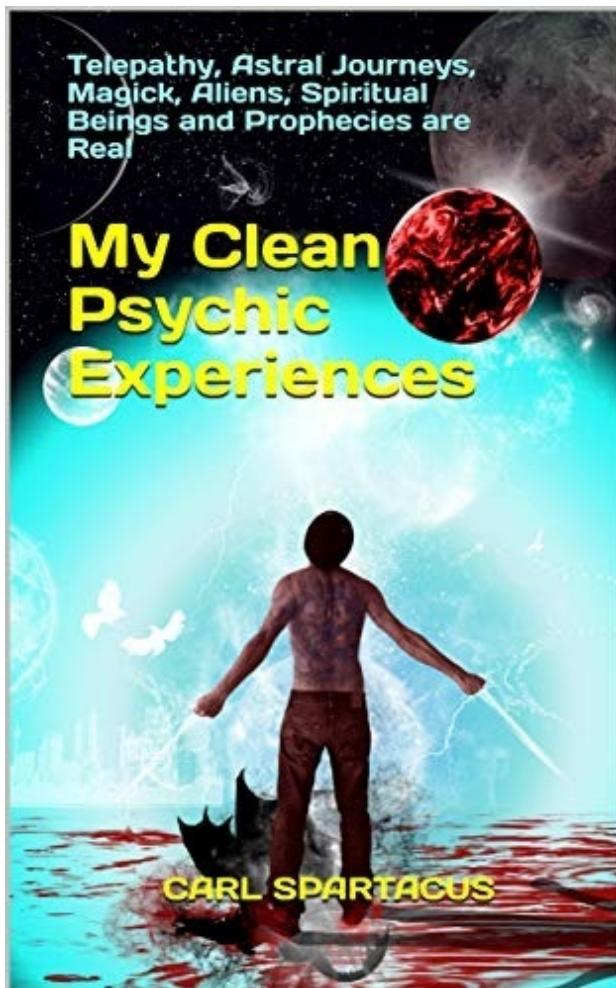

This book is a modern Goetia catalog with black and white ink arts, color sigils, pathworks, and kabbalistic correspondences for each one of the Goetia's spirits or demons.

Good for reference to create rituals.

It contains a list of powers obtained from practical use that are more wider and specific from those that are listed in the old grimoires.
